PATRIOTIC SERVICE

DOUBLE CELEBRATION—FRENCH HOLIDAY AND SERVICE FLAG DEDICATION

A double patriotic celebration was held on Sunday, the national French holiday, when the service flag made by the ladies of the Holy Family Catholic Church was presented with due ceremony at a large meeting held in the afternoon at the Palace Grand Theatre, following an impressive street parade, which formed at the church at 4:15.

The procession was led by a fife and drum corps from the Old Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, after which came the Elks' Patrol in which 40 men marched, behind them coming Father James O'Neill between a sailor lad and a soldier boy, both of Glendale. Tom Morgan, of 1610 Fifth street, was the soldier, who was at home on furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan, Sr. He has been in training in Florida, but left this morning for Fort MacArthur where he will be stationed. Nick Schultz, of 538 East Acacia avenue, who is stationed at San Pedro, was the navy representative.

Four little girls, ranging in age from four to seven years of age, came next, proudly bearing "Old Glory." The service flag with its 22 names was carried next in line by several boys and girls and was followed by many members of the parish led by H. M. Doll, local chairman of the Knights of Columbus, now organizing a chapter in Glendale.

When the audience was seated at the theatre, Mr. Doll called on Father O'Neill for the opening prayer, which was an impressive plea for aid at this crucial time for the president of our country and for the boys fighting for Liberty and Democracy. The audience was then called on to rise and sing "America," after which Mr. Doll appointed John S. McGroarty, author of the Mission Play, as chairman of the program.

After a few words of greeting to his "neighbors of Glendale" by Mr. McGroarty, whose home is in Monte Vista Canyon, he introduced Stephen A. Gavin of 638 Gardena, who is in the Government Income Tax service, as a speaker. Following Mr. Gavin's stirring talk, Miss Viola Yorba, introduced by Mr. McGroarty as a member of one of the pioneer families of this section, sang "Joan of Arc."

Judge McCormick, of the Superior Court, was then introduced as the principal speaker of the afternoon. He told very feelingly the story of the French struggle for liberty and the history of "Bastile Day," which has been celebrated throughout America this year in sympathetic friendship and responsive reciprocation for the French observance of July 4th. The history of early French aid succor to the cause of Liberty in the United States was also emphasized with the story of Lafayette, who is as greatly beloved in this country as is Washington in France, where his picture is universally seen throughout the homes of the land.

The services were closed with a few words by Mr. McGroarty, after the singing by the audience of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

DEATH OF MISS EDITH GRAHAM

Miss Edith M. Graham, of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the Home Missionary Department of the North American Division Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, died in Pasadena, Thursday, July 11. She had been ill for several months, and came to Pasadena last winter for special treatments. She was about 50 years of age.

Miss Graham, in her early years, was employed in the Bank of England, in London, and was an expert accountant. In 1894 she sailed to Australia, where she served for a number of years as an accountant for the Victorian Tract Society of the Seventh-day Adventists, in Melbourne. Soon after the Australasian Union Conference of the Adventists was organized she was elected secretary and treasurer. She also served as editor of the Australasian Union Record, published at Wahroonga, New South Wales, and as general auditor for all the Adventist conferences and institutions in Australia for years.

In 1913 Miss Graham came to America and was chosen executive secretary of the Home Missionary Department for this continent. She continued to labor energetically, promoting the interests of the Seventh-day Adventist missionary work throughout the field. She was an able, efficient worker in every line that she attempted, and her loss will be keenly felt by the denomination.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Tuesday. Cloudy near the coast. Light southwesterly winds.

MYSTIC HOURS

TWELVE NOON AND FOUR P. M. TAKE ON NEW MEANING

A potent influence is already being manifested in Red Cross circles as a result of the inauguration of the noon-day prayer for the victory of our allies and the safety of our splendid men. The same can be said of the social hour of four p. m., when the "cup that cheers but does not inebriate" is passed around. These two ceremonies are entirely free to the public, and each day sees a widening of the circle and an increased interest in the activities of the Chapter. Any friend of the Red Cross will be welcome and is urged to "drop up" at either hour. A hostess is ever in attendance to answer questions and show visitors about the various departments.

We are admonished to "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and what better way is there to do this than by preserving a spiritual and social balance during these trying times?

DEATH OF J. M. BOYNTON

John Martin Boynton, for the past ten years a resident of Glendale, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. G. Hann, 910 West Colorado boulevard, July 13 at 8:30 p. m. The deceased was born in New Hampshire and was 84 years, 2 months and 9 days old at the time of his death. He had lived in California for nearly thirty years and ten years ago came to Glendale. For the past few years he had lived with his daughter. Mr. Boynton was a retired furniture dealer.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Cremation at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. The Pulliam Undertaking Company was in charge.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MEET

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a business meeting of the Knights of Columbus at the parish house of the Holy Family Church, 311 West Lomita avenue. H. M. Doll, local chairman, who is in charge of organization of the new chapter, will be in charge. Reports will be heard from the precinct chairmen of membership committees, and other important business will be transacted.

WHITE FOR ASSEMBLYMAN CLUB

A John Robert White, Jr., for Assemblyman Club was organized Saturday evening at the store of E. F. Parker, 417 South Brand boulevard. Chas. H. Toll was elected president of the club and C. L. Chandler was chosen secretary. The first, second and third vice-presidents elected were Mrs. J. H. Braly, E. F. Parker and Mrs. W. E. Evans. The chairman was voted the power to appoint an executive commitete of as many persons as he may think advisable.

The meeting was called to order by C. L. Chandler, who nominated W. E. Evans temporary chairman. Mr. Evans proceeded to explain that Mr. White had not sought being a candidate for assemblyman, but on the contrary a committee had waited upon him and by persistent argument induced him to become a candidate. The organization was then made permanent by the election of officers as given above.

Persons present who addressed the meeting were J. C. Sherer, E. F. Parker, J. H. Franklin, Judge F. H. Lowe, Mr. Blanchard of Burbank, C. L. Chandler, C. H. Toll, S. C. Leppelman, W. E. Evans, R. L. McCourt, J. H. Braly and others.

Mr. White being present was called upon for a speech. He briefly stated that he had not had time since becoming a candidate to put his platform in writing, but he was pleased to state it contained essentially three points: First, winning of the war. Second, getting National and State prohibition. Third, economy that will not interfere with efficiency in winning the war.

Adjournment was made to meet at the call of the chair.

ADVERTISING ON CASH BASIS

About ten days ago an announcement was made that the names of persons owing small amounts to the Evening news would be published July 15 if said amounts were not paid prior to that date.

It is indeed gratifying to the management of the Evening News that so many persons paid up the small amounts that had been due for some time, and the list has been so reduced that it will not be published until it has been revised. In the meantime all advertising by persons not regularly engaged in business will be received only on a cash basis.

GERMANS RESUME OFFENSIVE

BIG DRIVE IS RENEWED THIS MORNING ON A FIFTY MILE FRONT—TWO AMERICAN UNITS INVOLVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

The German offensive was renewed this morning on a fifty mile front extending from Chateau-Thierry to the Champagne region. Early indications are that the enemy is combining a drive toward Paris with a desperate effort to capture Rheims and eliminate that city as an obstacle in the path toward Paris. Two distinct American units are involved in this attack. One is between Chateau-Thierry and Jaulgonne along a ten mile front along the Marne. The other is west of Main de Sessig.

The Germans also attacked Vaux after a hot bombardment, but an American counter attack not only repelled the enemy, but hurled them back a half mile behind their original positions. The Americans are fighting from shell holes with grenades and bayonets. The drive extends from Chateau-Thierry to Rheims and is apparently trying to reach Chalons.

GERMANS CROSS MARNE

THROW PONTOONS ACROSS RIVER AND INFANTRY ADVANCE SUPPORTED BY ARTILLERY AND MACHINE GUNS

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE MARNE, July 15.—The Germans violently attacked American positions near Vaux and Jaulgonne and other points following a terrific bombardment this morning. At daylight the Germans threw pontoons across the Marne and their infantry, supported by artillery and machine guns rushed across the river under fire at Jaulgonne and Mezy. Four miles east of that city they advanced a mile and three quarters. American resistance has slowed down the advance and a heavy counter attack was started, but the result of this is not known. The Germans crossed the Marne at three points on this four mile front this morning.

LONDON, July 15.—It is authoritatively stated that the Germans have crossed the Marne at several points in the new drive and have captured several villages and penetrated French positions nearly three miles at some points.

FRENCH LINES HOLD

CHAMPAGNE SECTOR STUBBORNLY RESISTS GERMANS IN NEW DRIVE BETWEEN DORMANS AND RHEIMS

PARIS, July 15.—The French army of the Champagne is holding magnificently against the new German drive according to reports from the battle front this afternoon. The enemy is concentrating between Dormans and Rheims a front of 25 miles. The enemy is reported to have crossed the river at several points between Chateau-Thierry and Dormans which should be easy as the river is very narrow at that point. Elsewhere the French are holding the Germans. Simultaneously with this drive the Germans attempted a formidable attack on the Ourcq front. They encountered a crushing barrage and were unable to advance from their positions. The main drive seems to be an attempt by fresh troops to converge on Chalons from several points and obviously the main objective is Paris. The long range bombardment of Paris was resumed again. Gun fire on the west front was audible all day.

3500 BOILER MAKERS AND IRON WORKERS AT OAKLAND SHIP YARDS QUIT WORK TODAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OAKLAND, Cal., July 15.—Thirty-five hundred boiler makers and iron workers in three shipyards went on strike today alleging their employers failed to keep the agreement negotiated through the Macy commission. The Labor Council has not officially sanctioned the strike. Federal mediators are at work trying to settle the difficulty peaceably.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15.—Referring to the strike of the shipyard workers at Oakland today as "damned disloyal," Charles Pietz, vice-president of the Emergency Fleet corporation, declared the strikers will be held to a strict accounting for their acts.

FISHERMEN STRIKE ENDS

JAPANESE RETURN TO THEIR NETS WHEN CANNERS AGREE TO PAY $10 PER TON BONUS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, July 15.—The strike of Japanese fishermen at San Pedro, Santa Monica and Long Beach ended today.

Fish Commissioner W. C. Crandall accepted the compromise brought about between the fishermen and the canning interests by Lieut. J. Wilbur of the San Pedro submarine base whereby the canners will pay the fishermen $10 per ton bonus for tuna. With the price of $100 per ton set by the government this will give the fishermen $110 a ton, although they struck for $120.

They state they will work for the new figure as a patriotic move.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION

ARE LUNCHEON GUESTS OF INSTRUCTOR, MRS. McCLURE IN LOS ANGELES

Ladies of the Shakespeare Section of the Tuesday Club, of which section Mrs. Charles H. Temple is Curator, were charmingly entertained Friday by their instructor Mrs. McClure, at her home, 2323 East Second street, Los Angeles. It was a mid-day luncheon of several courses at a table beautiful in all its appointments and was followed by an afternoon of literature and music furnished by Mrs. Alma Gibbs and little Elizabeth Sawyer of this city, Mrs. William Fred Frommea, a talented reader of Los Angeles and prominent member of the Ebell Club, and Mrs. Fleisenstine, a singer, of Los Angeles. The entertainment also provided some literary guessing games. The guest list included Mrs. Edna Sawyer and little daughter, Mrs. Alma Gibbs, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. C. E. Norton, Mrs. J. E. Lyons, Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy, Mrs. L. N. Rudy, Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee, Mrs. G. R. Squires, Mrs. I. S. Levitt, Mrs. Glenwood Jones, Mrs. Halstead, Mrs. Frank Ayars, Mrs. Dewey, Miss Dewey and Mrs. Ralston. It was one of the most delightful affairs the Section has ever enjoyed. Mrs. McClure will continue as instructor of the Section next year and the first meeting will be a study of "As You Like It."

FAREWELL SHOWER

Mrs. T. F. McCrea, who will sail with her husband on August 24th for China, where they will again take up missionary work, will be the honor guest on Thursday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower to be given on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the women of the Baptist Church. The little things which are so simple to get at any notion counter in America and so difficult to secure at any price or place in distant China will be the gifts featured at this farewell affair which is to be open to all of the many friends of the McCreas. Needles and pins, tapes and hairpins, thread, stockings and buttons, and even darning cotton will be conspicuous at the party, and will probably prove among the most cherished reminders of home friends in many a small crisis which might otherwise evolve into no less than a buttonless domestic tragedy in a far-off foreign land. The ladies of the R. T. W. class will act as hostesses at the shower.

JUVENILE PARTY

Mrs. Roy Kent was hostess on Friday evening at her home, 222 North Central street, at a "juvenile party," at which twenty young couples of the Baptist Church enjoyed children's games, all appropriately arrayed in school boy and girl costumes. The lawn, gaily hung with Japanese lanterns and bright with patriotic decorations, was the scene of the merry festivities, which included various exceedingly active and exciting youthful contests and sports under the direction of Mrs. G. W. Eley and Mrs. Harry Chase. A Dutch lunch was served indoors, Mrs. Doxie assisting the hostess in serving, while the gentlemen, in their abbreviated knickerbockers, were most effective waiters. The victrola and player piano furnished music, Miss Beatrice Doxie contributing several piano selections. Much impromptu entertainment was furnished the guests by L. Gray, whose costume as "Huckleberry Finn" added much to the fun of the occasion, together with his droll stories and witty impersonations.

WANTED, AN AMERICAN FLAG

The patriotic women workers at the Red Cross headquarters are anxious to have a suitable American flag on display. A cotton bunting six by ten or so can be obtained for three or four dollars, it is believed, and if a few score of persons will "chip in" five or ten cents, the necessary sum will soon be raised. Contributions will be welcomed at the headquarters.

SEVERAL COMPLICATIONS

There are several complications that enter into the political campaign prior to the primary election that indicate there will be something doing in the political field the next forty days. One thing bear in mind —may nothing be done to detract from war energies. The boys at the front have a fight more important than any political fight. Our first attention is due them.

Should we not refrain from bringing up the past record of those men high in power who are not candidates before the people at this year's election. Their turn will come in due time. Do not at present attempt to have the faults of present candidates hide behind office holders.

HOUSE PARTY

SAILOR LADS ARE GUESTS OF HONOR AT MRS. RICHARDSON'S HOME

A delightful week-end party enjoyed last week by a group of sailor lads from the submarine base at San Pedro was given by Mrs. Ella Richardson at her home, 805 South Central, where she has for the past few weeks kept open house for soldier and sailor boys. Besides her house guests for the week, Misses Ivy Hunter and Helen Becker, both Stanford girls, Miss Marion Addison, of 316 Belmont street, was also a week-end guest. The navy men were Earl C. Nost of Baltimore, Harry E. Patterson, from Maine, Frank A. Prouty, from Massachusetts, and Chas. A. Harrison, of Colorado Springs.

On Saturday evening an informal dance was enjoyed and on Sunday two dinners, each with added guests, were served under the trees on the lawn. The Misses Cathlee Duncan and Rose Duncan shared in the noon dinner festivities, and in the evening Mr. Hunter with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan and Miss Mary Logan completed the party. The sailor boys testified to such a glorious good time that they want to return to Glendale at the earliest opportunity, when they expect to show their appreciation by bringing wih them their 17-piece navy band and doing their part in the entertainment.

Plans have been definitely made toward this occasion though the date is not yet certain. Some 150 boys from the submarine base expect to be in Glendale as week-end guests, when a big dance will be given in their honor at Mrs. Richardson's home. If present arrangements are carried out, the time will probably be the week ending July 27, on the evening of which day the dance would be given. Volunteers among Glendale residents will entertain the boys at their homes. Among those who will help Mrs. Richardson in placing the boys are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. John Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duffield, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peckham, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell.

NEWSPAPERS MUST ECONOMIZE ON PRINT PAPER

Because of an acute shortage in the supply of paper the War Industries Board announced, effective July 15, the following preliminary economies to be enforced by newspapers publishing a daily and weekly edition:

Discontinue the acceptance of the return of unsold copies.

Discontinue the use of all samples or free promotion copies.

Discontinue giving copies to anybody, except for office-working copies or where required by statute law in the case of official advertising.

Discontinue giving free copies to advertisers, except not more than one copy each for checking purposes.

Discontinue the arbitrary forcing of copies on news dealers (i. e., compelling them to buy more copies than they can legitimately sell in order to hold certain territory).

Discontinue the buying back of papers at either wholesale or retail selling price from dealers or agents in order to secure preferential representation.

Discontinue the payment of salaries or commissions to agents, dealers, or newsboys for the purpose of securing the equivalent of return privileges.

Discontinue all free exchanges.

DEATH OF BABY JENSEN

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Robert Stanley Jensen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen of 126 South Maryland avenue. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jensen extend their deepest sympathy for the loss of the little one who passed away at the age of five days at the Thornycroft hospital on Saturday morning. Interment will be at Rosedale cemetery.

CLEAN-UP DAY AT THE TRASH FACTORY

Tomorrow, Tuesday, is to be clean-up day at the Red Cross Salvage Department, and workers are much needed. If a dozen or more persons would volunteer for two or three hours' work, the whole shop could be put in ship-shape order in a surprisingly short time. Mothers, put on your big aprons and old gloves and come and bring the children. The little ones are a great help. Father or big brother can help, too, at the baler. Mr. Harkness and Mr. Nolan will be on hand at eight-thirty a. m. to oversee the job. Mrs. Mullin and Mrs. McClean will also be there to instruct the uninitiated. This is your chance to make money for the Red Cross. More than $500.00 was derived from this source last month.

WHAT VICTORY OR DEFEAT MEANS TO AMERICANS

The victory of Germany means to Americans, first of all, bitter personal humiliation, says Hamilton Fyfe of the National Security League. It would mean that for the first time in their history Americans had failed in a task to which they had set their hands for the advancement of human dignity and freedom.

Secondly, the victory of Germany would inflict upon democracy, the principle of the government of peoples by themselves and for themselves, a disabling wound. It would disastrously strengthen the opposing principle of irresponsible Autocracy or Oligarchy, the rule of one man, or a few men, against which every American has, since the founding of the nation, felt it his duty and privilege to fight.

Thirdly, the victory of this principle would cast down the Monroe Doctrine, for the Autocrat would surely stretch out his covetous fingers towards South America and would establish himself as the Paramount Power in that continent.

Fourthly, it would result from a German victory that the freedom of every American in commerce, in industry, in travel, and in the daily affairs even of life at home, would be endangered. The spread of German "kultur" is announced as one of Germany's war aims, the "kultur" which Nietzsche, himself a German philosopher, declared to be "surrounded by the spell and atmosphere of the Middle Ages." Their methods of making war have proved the justice of that hostile criticism. Their victory would be at once followed by the attempt to impose Mediaevalism upon the world.

The defeat of Germany will mean for every American the personal satisfaction of having destroyed another tyranny; of having freed the world from a sinister peril, and the German people themselves from the incubus of Absolutism; of having cleared the ground for the League of Nations which alone can ensure the right of each and all to live peacefully according to their own ideas; of having fought bravely and successfully once again in the Liberation-War of humanity.—South Pasadena Record.

THE PLAN FOR WORLD FREEDOM

It would be well for freemen, everywhere, to commit to memory the excerpts from President Wilson's Fourth of July address:

"The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separate, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world, or if it cannot be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence."

Such is America's aim, in this war, and backing it are all that America has of lives, money and material. As the president says:

"There can be but one issue. settlement must be final. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable."

And when that issue is decided, there shall be

"The settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, or economic arrangement, or of political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned."

The settlement of international questions and permanent peace shall come about through

"The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned."—Whittier News.

welfare of returned soldiers is proof that the Government is alive to the dangers of radical propaganda. Without painstaking foresight and careful preparation to meet them, our after-the-war problems threaten to bulk so large that they may well inspire feelings of boubt that they can be satisfactorily solved. The assurance, then, that the Government has an eye on the future is more than comforting; it tells us that conscientious thought will be given to the needs of the years to come.—The Tidings.

WOMEN'S WELFARE WORK

men employed now at Hog Island, recently renamed by Chas. Schwab Victory Island, and it is estimated that there will be at least 40,000 by September. And there are nearly seven hundred women, most of whom do not look in the least womanly, but rather like particularly fine, intelligent high school girls. Dr. Anna Gardiner Young has charge of the Women's Welfare Work, with five matrons under her. In every building where women are employed they have their own "rest room," with a "silence room" where a girl who is ill can lie down and be quiet until she is better, or it seems best to send her home.

Dr. Young looks her name so completely that it is hard to realize that for nine years she was connected with the school medical work in Philadelphia and before that specialized in work with the insane, and she is an enthusiast over what she calls "Industrial Medicine," which means keeping employes well.

"Every firm," she explained, "has the number of employes it needs to do its work. If one is away, her work is not done, or is poorly done by others. If she comes when she is ill the work suffers, and many times they do not feel able to pay a doctor. The other day one of my girls said she would not have come to work, but she knew I could do something for her, and sure enough after she had spent an hour in the rest room she was able to go on with her work.

"We are very particular about our girls. For instance, we have three telephone girls who are on duty from five until ten in the evening, and three others who come on at ten and remain until eight the next morning. One of the matrons takes each of the first group home, and leaves them at their own doors. There is a matron with them all the time they are on duty. The girls know they are 'on honor,' and take pride in doing their work well and themselves credit."

In addition to the usual clerical work that is done by women, many of these young girls are being taken into the Administration building and on the "ways" and taught to know the different parts of a ship.

There is a hospital on the ground, and an ambulance. There are cafeterias. There is a fire station. There is a Y. M. C. A. "Hut" rapidly nearing completion. There is an athletic park. There are numberous "Bunk Houses," built on the same general plan as those at Camp Meade. There are machine shops and warehouses and office buildings and a street railway, and electric lights and flags, innumerable flags, bright and clean and new, that belong to the men who work under them. On the Administration building appear these words:

"I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands. One nation, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Perhaps it is that pledge and those omnipresent flags that gives the island the record for the most generous response yet made to the Liberty Loan appeal. The quota for the island was $500,000 and 22,384 men bought bonds to the extent of $2,132,550. Under those flags all sorts of records are being broken, and all previous high water marks submerged. The rattle of machine guns at the front finds an echo in the rattle of the rivets in these yards. There is no place in the world where one can see the splendid militant and triumphant genius of the American people better than at Victory Island.

There is only one thing that nobody seems to have thought of thus far, but some day I hope a cable will go to R. Kipling, England, asking permission to print an unlimited edition of "The Ship That Found Herself," that each workman and woman in this great plant may have it brought home to him that he is "the one indispensable rivet" upon whom rests the responsibility of holding the Ship of State together.

AT HOG ISLAND

A little while ago it may have been alive, but it was not awake. Now it is both. The man at the top and the man at the bottom have the same desire to do great things, and they are pulling together. There were some slackers a few months ago. Their fellow workmen eliminated them. They have had some sixty flag raisings. A group of men buy a flag; they let the Service Department know that they will want speakers, the band is on hand, and Old Glory floats from another height. There was a flag-raising the day I was there, and thousands of workmen gathered for the sight. Most of them were in their shirt-sleeves, but nobody had his hat on, and nobody put it on until the last note of the Star-Spangled Banner was lost in the din that seems to be fairly perpetual.

While there are many languages spoken there, the workers are said to be mainly Americans, and those who are not American born speak Engilsh. The colored men are making a great record for themselves and the yard, and when they smashed all records for pile driving recently their white fellow workmen cheered with a will.

In the Welfare Department there is a colored investigator who looks into any alleged case of discrimination against his race. The Jewish workmen have an investigator of their own also. This is the Plant of Square Deal, and everybody gets it.

SIZE OF ARMY CAMPS AND CANTONMENTS INCREASED

More than $22,000,000 have been expended during the past six months under the direction of the Construction Division of the Army in making additions and improvements to camps and cantonments. This sum does not include the cost of additions to the hospital equipments or the improvements made at other Army stations.

The improvement work consisted of additional buildings for housing the men and providing for their comforts and needs. Among buildings erected were quarters for officers and nurses, repair shops, additional barracks, coffee-roasting plants, kitchens, and bakeries, and theaters. New roads were laid and sanitation works improved and extended.

Many additional buildings are contemplated, and general construction work will be rushed to completion during the summer and fall. In some instances the camp work has been extended to drainage of an entire district surrounding the camp to remove danger of disease arising from the proximity of swamps.

Liberty theaters have been erected at all national Army cantonments. Each of these theaters has an average inclosed seating capacity of 2000. Theaters and amusement halls have been erected also in the National Guard camps and at other points where troops are in training.

CRACK NAVY GUNNER STOPS SUBMARINE

The fourth shot from a gun manned by a Navy armed guard on an American merchant ship struck the conning tower of a German submarine, which attacked the ship May 12 last at 1,000 yards distance. The submarine was compelled to submerge after having launched four torpedoes, two of which missed the steamer's bow by about 12 feet. Chief Gunner's Mate Harry R. Chambers, commanding the armed guard, was commended by Secretary Daniels for efficient conduct.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Proctor and baby, of 145 West Los Feliz road, spent the week end at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, of Brand boulevard, and a party of friends are spending the week at Big Bear Lake.

Fire Chief A. H. Lankford and Clyde St. Clair have returned from a two weeks' fishing and sight-seeing trip at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. J. E. Walker has returned to Glendale after a two weeks' sojourn during which she enjoyed the sea breezes at Ocean Park.

Mrs. Eckstein, sister of Charles Cushing, librarian of the Glendale Branch Public Library, has returned from Highland Park and located at 420 North Glendale avenue.

Mrs. Fred Furbeck, of the Furbeck Art Studio, 515 South Brand boulevard, with her small son Dana, has been a week-end guest in Riverside, where she has been vistiing relatives and friends.

Mrs. George H. Rowe, of 516 South Orange srteet, who has been confined to her home for the past week, is recovering very nicely from her illness, though she probably will not be about as usual for several days.

H. H. Schumaker, who has been working in the shipyards at San Pedro, has rented his home at 358 Orange Grove avenue and the family has left Glendale. They have not decided where they will locate as houses are at a premium in San Pedro.

Mrs. J. H. Springer of 1630 Oak street was hostess on Wednesday at a pretty and patriotic luncheon at her home. Her guests included Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Fred Thompson and her mother, Mrs. Fred Weisenheimer, Miss Avis Thompson, Miss Nellie Genevieve Rowe, and Mrs. Springer's mother, Mrs. J. F. Berry.

Word comes from Verne Freeman that he is now stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, and is in the Medical Corps. Fort Russell is located a mile and a half from Cheyenne, which city he says consists of dirt roads, hitching posts, saddle horses and cow punchers. Verne says he is well and likes his work very much.

Mrs. Bert Kelley and her daughter Elizabeth, formerly of Glendale, were visitors in town last week, having come over from their new home in Pasadena to spend several days with old friends, among whom was Mrs. Glenn Smith, who entertained them as luncheon guests at her home in Bungalow Court, on South Brand avenue, on Tuesday.

The Medical Department, United States Army, needs women as reconstruction aids. The office of the Surgeon General announces: "The work of reconstruction aids is divided into two sections, (1) those women who are well trained in massage and the other forms of physio-therapy, and (2) those who are trained in simple handicrafts." Foreign service pay is $60, home service pay $50 per month and quarters allowances.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Williams, of 510 Orange street, with their daughter, Miss Dorothy, left on Saturday morning for a camping trip in the Sierra mountains. Miss Williams was a freshman last year at the University of California, where she expects to continue her studies next year. The family will probably prolong their vacation trip for several weeks and have been looking forward to the out-of-door sports of mountain life, which will include fishing and frequent "hikes."

Mrs. G. F. Latter of 316 Boynton street left on Sunday for a week's vacation at Catalina Island, following the return of her daughter, Miss Doris, who had enjoyed the previous week there in company with several girl friends, chaperoned by Mrs. Thomas Ogg, who will remain for the coming week. Others of the party were Miss Ruth Sanford and the Misses Margaret and Dorothy McPherson. G. F. Latter, whose railroad employment keeps him at Kansas City, was able to spend the past week with Mrs. Latter at his home here, returning on Friday.

Miss A. B. Hunt of Sycamore avenue and several other citizens of Glendale will participate in a series of Red Cross benefits which are to be put on at the Red Cross Shop at Eighth and Alvarado streets, Los Angeles every Saturday afternoon during July and August. Those are half holidays at the big dry goods stores, and taking advantage of that fact, the employes of each store are being asked to unite in furnishing programs, the stores taking their separate turns. The first of these entertainments, which will include street dances and other pleasure-giving stunts of an informal character, took place last Saturday. They are counted upon to add considerable money to the coffers of the Red Cross and will probably be very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nash, of 141 Park avenue, entertained as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blackstone of Long Beach.

Mrs. Lloyd Whitaker, of East Los Angeles, has been spending the past week with her grandfather, J. J. Laws of 504 Palmer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Webster of 144 Park avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morgan, enjoyed the day Sunday with a motor trip, taking them through Topango canyon and other scenic spots, coming out at the beach and driving home in the evening.

Among the Sunday motor parties who enjoyed the scenic drives about Glendale were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Maxwell of 136 Park avenue, who, with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bennett of 418 North Central avenue, drove to Griffith Park and other interesting points.

Miss Hazel Stanton, of 330 East Third street, who has been a kindergarten teacher in Los Angeles during the past year; has been confined to her home during the past week by illness. Miss Stanton has been carrying heavy work along Red Cross and other war service lines in addition to her regular school duties, in accordance with the custom of her family, which is exceptionally active in patriotic performance. With a brother, Russell Stanton, in France, three other sisters are all in active service. Miss Fay is in civil service work at Mare Island, Miss Marion in Washington, D. C., and Miss Dorothy taking nurse's training at the Clara Barton hospital. The mother, too, Mrs. Marion Stanton, has taken the Red Cross nurse's training, has won her diploma and is subject to call for Government service.

ELIMINATING RANDALL

(By O. L. Kilborn)

There seems to be a determined effort on the part of a group of politicians to freeze out Congressman Randall, but the opposition got to quarreling among themselves as to who was to be the favored son in his place, and as each one thought all the others should step aside for him, the well-laid plans went awry. The objection to Randall is that he opposed the declaration of war against Germany and has not supported the cause of the allies as earnestly as he should have done. Mr. Randall is not alone in opposing war on Germany. It was not he who said after the Lusitania was torpedoed and hundreds of innocents drowned by the unspeakable Huns: "We are too proud to fight." Nor did he say after the crimes against the Sussex and many other ships, and after it had been proven time and again that no American or other neutral ship was safe on the high seas from destruction by the hell-hounds of the outlaw nation: "Germany has as yet given us no cause for war." And let us remember that the great man whose tireless energy in prosecuting the war and whose state papers are the wonder of the world, won his last election on opposition to war with Germany. Thousands of mothers voted for him on the plea that he saved their boys from going to war. Yet in one month after his second inauguration war was declared. I am not writing this to cast any reproach on President Wilson, but simply to show that Mr. Randall was not the only one who opposed the war. In fact we all did until regard for national honor compelled a change of view.

And remember that the only two men in the country who had sense enough from the very first to see that war was inevitable and who constantly urged preparedness, are now being punished by the powers that be because every prediction came true.

I hold that Congressman Randall is trying, so far unsuccessfully, to do more to aid in the successful prosecution of the war than Speaker Clark, Senator Reed, Senator Penrose, the late Senator Stone, or any other of the upholders of booze have ever done, and more than most of his California detractors will ever do. He has been trying for a year past, against the determined opposition of the President, Secretaries Baker, Burleson and Houston, every pro-liquor Congressman and Senator and of all the powerful German brewers, to save millions of dollars' worth of food for the soldiers and to take away from them the one curse that would slay more of them than German bullets. And yet these mighty brewers, nearly every one of whom is a German and an enemy, have so far had more influence over Congress than upright, patriotic Mr. Randall. But, thank God, the stranglehold of these workers of iniquity on Congress seems abut to be broken and Mr. Randall's long, persistent fight for righteousness will win at last.

If food will win the war, then Mr. Randall's fight to save a billion loaves of bread a year by cutting off the hoarding by the brewers of millions of bushels of corn and barley and thousands of tons of sugar, as well as saving millions of tons of fuel, deserves far more credit than the mere voting of money to buy munitions.

We are out to win this war at any cost. We are proud of our president's and the war deparment's mighty achievements and we are ready to applaud any righteous method to conserve as well as to provide, hence I claim that Congressman Randall is doing fully as much, in his limited sphere and against heavier odds, than is Secretary Baker.

CAMPAIGN FOR DR. RUSSELL

Although the candidacy of Dr. Jessie A. Russell for the legislature was announced only a few days ago, a large number of women and men are already actively engaged in the campaign for her election. Inasmuch as Dr. Russell is a forceful, logical, and concise speaker, she has always been in demand and within 24 hours after her decision was made she had received over 37 invitations to address public meetings in the district.

On Wednesday Dr. Russell is to be the principal speaker at a large meeting of the Los Angeles W. C. T. U. Federation to be held at Sycamore Park.

Dr. Russell is so well known throughout the district that there has been an enthusiastic response to her candidacy. Campaign committees are already being formed throughout the entire district. Complete precinct organizations will soon be placed.

Dr. Robert C. Barton of the State Morals Efficiency Committee, who is known throughout the State for his earnest work in law enforcement, has proffered his assistance in the campaign. Also has Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, Mrs. Jane Beatty of Highland Park, Mrs. M. E. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Kellogg, and many of the most prominent business men in and out of the 61st District. Men on the Superior bench and others in official positions have been most earnest in their endorsement of Dr. Russell; she has received several telegrams from legislators who are already in office expressing their hearty approval of her decision.

With her knowledge of law and wide experience with Eastern and California Legislatures, women and men generally concede that Dr. Russell is eminently qualified for the seat in the next legislature. Her platform will consist of a few "planks of the best timber," the most prominent of which are:

A strong win the war program.

Ratification of the National Prohibition Amendment.

Radical reduction in State expenses.

She would also do everything possible to discourage the introduction and consideration of such an enormous number of bills as are usually introduced, most of which are usually non-essential.

Among the many on the campaign committee of Dr. Russell are the following: Mesdames A. M. Beamon, Ed. M. Lee, L. W. Bosserman, Dan Campbell, John A. Logan, H. E. Bartlett, Ella W. Richardson, W. E. Edmonds, E. D. Yard, C. E. Norton, Cora D. Stauffacher, David L. Gregg, John G. Hunchberger, C. M. Turck, Menzo Williams, Lawrence Ellis, Mabel Franklin Ocker, William C. Wattles, W. W. McElroy, Wesley H. Bullis, Ed. M. Lynch, Arthur C. Brown, Cora Hickman, C. D. Burket, Mary E. Shropshire, Eva Daniels, M. L. Weaver, Adelaide H. Imler, C. E. Harlan, George Woodberry, Clinton L. A neighborhood motor party on Sunday enjoyed a trip to Balboa, where Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser of 1450 Riverdale drive, Glendale, were pleasantly surprised in their summer home by the group of "home" friends. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase and family, Mrs. Minnie Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farlander and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, and the Misses Doris Packer, Isabelle Lyons and Gusta Otto.

PRODUCTIVENESS OF STATES

Illinois is the center of agricultural production of the United States, says the Department of Agriculture. States of greatest production 1917 are: Iowa, $1,330,000,000; Illinois, $1,255,000,000; Texas, $1,045,000,000; Missouri, $947,000,000; Ohio, $851,000,000; Nebraska, $774,000,000; Indiana, $766,000,000; Kansas, $735,000,000; New York, $700,000,000; Minnesota, $646,000,000; Pennsylvania, $636,000,000; Georgia, $605,000,000; Wisconsin, $598,000,000; California, $575,000,000; Michigan, $534,000,000; Kentucky, $529,000,000.

Prospects for an improved highway from Riverside city to Rialto are very good. The supervisors of Riverside and San Bernardino counties are considering a proposition that San Bernardino county build a bridge over the Santa Ana river on the Riverside-Rialto road in return for a gift of a right-of-way for a highway from beaumont to Redlands. These improvements have long been sought by both counties.

FOLLOWS HUSBAND

Mrs. Gordon Southam, of Hamilton, Ontario, whose husband was killed in action and whose brother also made the supreme sacrifice, is going to France as a Y. M. C. A. canteen worker. "I'd fight if I could," she said, "but I want to do what I can to help the fighting men."

MEN WANTED

If you can measure up to these requirements you can go to France as a Y. M. C. A. War Work secretary:

Good mixer,
Over draft age,
Not a pacifist or slacker,
Willing to go under shell fire,
Broad-gauged and willing to go where sent.

The call has gone out from the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. for 4000 men for overseas service before September 1. These men must go to France as big brothers for the boys who have gone from their homes to fight in the great cause. The Y. M. C. A. secretary must take cheer into his life, serve him at all times and keep him fit to fight.

Frank A. Jackson, head of the bureau of personnel for the National War Work Council of Y. M. C. A., with headquarters at 519 First National Bank Building, San Francisco, says that the need for men at this time is most urgent.

"We want men big enough to have a smile and a cheery word when they themselves are fagged out after hours of service for our boys. We want men with big hearts and hard muscles, men who will go to France on a blind assignment, ready to handle whatever job appears at the moment to be most important. We need natural leaders, men who are real men, good mixers and capable of exerting the proper influence.

"We don't want pacifists, slackers. Our men go under shell fire. They have been gassed and wounded by bursting shrapnel. We need men who understand something about athletics, who can drive motor trucks. We need red-blooded American men who don't know what fear is but who want to serve overseas and do something to help win this war."

STANDS ON HIS PAST RECORD

Re-elect Harry M. Miller, Justice of the Peace, Burbank Township, incumbent. Mr. Miller was born at Philadelphia, Pa., in the year 1877. When 13 years of age his parents moved to Burlington, Wis., on a farm where he assisted his father farming. When he became 21 years old he enlisted in the United States Cavalry at Chicago, Ill., and served three years in the Spanish-American war in the Philippine Islands. After the war he was employed at Fort Warden at Port Townsend, Wash., as carpenter for the U. S. Government. In 1905 he first came to Glendale and for a time worked at his trade, that of a carpenter. Two years later he was elected City Marshal of Glendale, the city at that time having a population of little more than 3,000. As the city grew in population, the police department was increased and Mr. Miller continued on the force, gaining much knowledge and experience that has been of inestimable benefit to him. He was elected city marshal three terms in succession and still continued to serve the city in the police department until he resigned, being elected to the office of Justice of the Peace of Burbank Township in the year 1914.

During his years of service to the City of Glendale, Mr. Miller has won a reputation for fairness, devotion to duty, and persistence in bringing wrongdoers to justice that few officers enjoy. He succeeded in 1914 in bringing to justice the Eagle Rock bank robber, the La Canada post office robber, the uncovering of two "blind pigs" one drug store and a peddler's wagon, and the nearly fatal shooting of a burglar who resisted arrest.

Mr. Miller's experience as city marshal for six years, nine months, and as Justice of the Peace of Burbank Township since 1914, gives him the knowledge and tact needed especially in the handling of juvenile cases, children who have committed their first offenses. His intention is to arbitrate cases whenever possible, without bringing them into court, thus saving costs, and thereby helping our government and president to accomplish a successful victory in our present crisis. Mr. Miller has made promises as to what he will do if elected. He will not forget that he is the servant of the people. He will maintain a court room in Glendale, and as the Township includes three cities and three towns he agrees to hold court at any of these places when requested to do so. His intention is to continue his law studies by attending night school at the U. S. C. and will hold himself in readiness at any time to serve his constituents in any way possible. He further promises to decide every case on its merits alone, irrespective of the persons involved. Even-handed justice will be his motto. He has done his duty as he sees it.

Mr. Miller has a wife and one son 8½ years old and is the owner of considerable property, including his home at 1022 West Seventh street, Glendale. He is forty years of age.

Do you believe that faithful public service merits public approval? Judge Harry M. Miller stands squarely on his record. Re-elect him at the primaries August 27th, 1918.

Southern farm boy-club members produced in 1917 food and feed valued at $4,019,121, the Department of Agriculture reports. A total of 115.745 boys were enrolled in regular clubs in 14 States.

STATE NEWS

BERKELEY, Cal., July 15.—Proposals for the complete and radical reorganization of the California school system made the session of the California High School Teachers Association which opened at the University of California here today, one of the most important meetings in the association's history. The committee recently appointed by Will C. Wood, state commissioner of secondary education, to formulate a plan for reorganizing the secondary school system, will present its proposals to the meeting. The committee favors placing all school work from the sixth grade through the second year of college work, under the secondary school system, thus keeping students at home until they are ready for their final two years of University work. The convention will remain in session practically the entire week and a program in which educational leaders of California and of outside states will have the important parts, has been arranged under the direction of F. F. Palmer, principal of the Claremont high school of Claremont. E. W. Hauck, principal of the Fullerton Union high school at Fullerton, is president of the state association.

LOS ANGELES, July 15.—The Rev. P. R. Knickerbocker has some practical ideas on how to keep a husband and he gave them to Los Angeles wives and prospective wives at a recent church service here. His theory was embodied in "Ten Commandments for Modern Mothers; or How to Hold Hubby," as follows:

1. Thou shalt have no other man except thy husband; neither shalt thou eye another.
2. Thou shalt not neglect thy home for a bargain sale or club or suffragette propaganda.
3. Thou shalt not be a peach on the street, a pippin in society and a lemon in the house.
4. Thou shalt not wear $50 bonnets and imported lingerie when thy husband wears five-cent socks and hand-me-down trousers.
5. Thou shalt not play bridge whist for gain, neither shalt thou sip the sparkling glass.
6. Thou shalt use the same blandishments on thy husband as thou didst use on thy sweetheart and he shall always be thy lover.
7. Thou shalt not nag thy husband nor thy son nor thy daughter nor thy servant.
8. Thou shalt suffer little children to come, for thy greatest name is Mother.
9. Thou shalt not neglect to pray for thy children; neither shalt thou neglect to spank them.
10. Thou shalt not rear thy children by proxy but thou thyself shall be their mother.

ALAMEDA, Cal., July 15.—Alameda has entered strenuous protest against Berkeley being declared the healthiest city of the United States for babies. In a recent report of the New York milk commission both Berkeley and Alameda were classed among the five cities of the United States with the lowest mortality rate for children under five years of age. Alameda grants Berkeley a place among the high five, but points to an infant mortality rate of 40.7 per thousand as proof that she is the champion baby city. Berkeley's rate is given by the milk commission as 43.4. San Francisco has the lowest death rate per 1000 for babies under one year old of any city over 100,000 population in the United States. Her rate is 8.2 for children under one year and 73.6 for children under five years. San Diego leads cities under 50,000 population with a death rate of 5.7 for children under one year. The commission attributes California leadership to good milk.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Important questions regarding the operation of western railroads were under consideration here today when the heads of the western departments of the railroad administration met in conference with their chief—Director of Railways William G. McAdoo. The meeting was called by McAdoo, who took advantage of his western vacation trip to get in touch with the western railroad situation through direct contact with the men running it. It is expected important developments will follow the meeting. Among those attending the conference are Edwards Chambers, national director of traffic, formerly with the Santa Fe, headquarters San Francisco. Carl R. Gray, director of the division of operation. William Sproule, director for California, Nevada, Arizona and parts of Utah and New Mexico. J. C. Gilman, director for the Pacific northwest, headquarters Portland. R. H. Aishton, regional director for the territory west of the Mississippi.

An irrigation project, second in area only to the Imperial Valley project, has been formally presented to the supervisors of Merced, Stanislaus and Fresno counties. The project, which is known as the West Side Irrigation District, embraces 426,197 acres of land valued at $9,713,077. Of the total area 297,558 acres are in Merced county, 70,562 acres in Stanislaus county, and 58,012 acres in Fresno county. The project is opposed by the Miller & Lux interests, owning the San Joaquin and Kings River Canal & Irrigation Company, which is embraced in the district. Less than half the acreage of the proposed district is now under irrigation and planted to crops.
